THE POWDER PEOPLE

It's where it all started, and it's still what gets us excited. Creating flavours that end up in cafés, restaurants, milkshake bars and kitchens across the country isn't just what we make. It's what we think about every day.

A scoop here. A blend there. Mix two flavours together and suddenly you've got something completely different. That's the fun of it.

Sure, we've got fruit purées, coffee syrups and plenty more in the range, but powders are our thing. They're the reason people know the Drink N'ice name, and they're still the heart of everything we do.

We're always experimenting, always tasting and always chasing the next great flavour. Sometimes it's a timeless classic. Sometimes it's something nobody saw coming. Either way, if it ends up making someone's menu a little more exciting, we've done our job.

That's what being The Powder People is all about.

HERE'S WHY YOU'LL LOVE DRINK N'ICE!
